FOREWORD

After many months of intensive work in collecting and organizing pictures and editing copy, we, the 1957 Tattler staff, proudly present the thirty-fifth edition of the Tattler. We have attempted to portray all activities, individual and collective, curricular and extra-curricular, unique and commonplace which were a vital part of the 1956-1957 school term. Cherish this annual for it is within these pages that some of the most exciting, memorable, and eventful days of your life are recorded.

CLASS EDITORS: Betty Barraclough (Managing Editor), Donna Ohl, Carol Miller, and Patricia Guinther.

Pupils Are Primary School Directors

The Board of School Directors consists of seventeen members representing the various communities in the East Penn Union School District. It is subject to regulations by the Commonwealth and its duties are definitely outlined by a school code. Their responsibilities are the selecting of the faculty, the financing of the schools, the maintaining of school property, and the establishing of school policies.

Consideration of and Administrators

The administrative staff is concerned with guiding and directing pupil growth through the supervision of instruction, curriculum, and school activities. It believes that the pupil is the primary consideration and that the policies, curriculum, methods of teaching, and administrative procedures should contribute the maximum to the training and education of the student.

The continued accreditation of Emmaus High School by the Commission on Secondary Schools and its acceptance as a member of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools is the result of continuous effort by the Board of School Directors, Administrators, and Faculty to improve and maintain high scholastic standards and to provide the best educational facilities possible.

Graduates

They Have Reached The Goal . . .

SUSANNA B. ANDERSON Macungie, Route 1

Serene, proficient, and unhurried, Sue always had her work done, yet was never too busy to help her classmates. Her favorite sport was basketball and she was student manager of our girls' team. Sue hopes to be on the office staff of one of our local firms.

Secretarial Course. Basketball (Student Manager) 1, 2, 3; Gymnastic Club 1; Dramatics Club 2; Gym Team 2, 3; Declamation Contest 2.

RICHARD R. ATEN Macungie

Dick, a tall, good natured boy, practically grew up on his father's farm and developed a love of the outdoor life. Proficient in the know-ledge of raising animals, Dick won many a prize for his steers. He will complete his education as a member of the scientific farming group at Penn State.

College Preparatory Course. Tattler Staff (Advertising Manager) 3; Class Play 3; Band 1, 2, 3; Concert Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Nature Study Club 1; Rifle Club (Treasurer) 2.

BARBARA A. BACHMAN 336 MINOR STREET

Her sweet disposition, attractiveness, neatness, and love of fun, made Barbara a delightful person to know. Although usually working at Lawson's, she still found time for swimming, sports, and above all, eating. With all her fine qualities, Barbara will surely make a successful beautician and housewife.

SECRETARIAL COURSE. Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Chess and Checkers Club 1; Recreational Swimming Club 2, 3.

BERNADINE M. BALASCAK 215 South Fifth Street

This petite and cheerful girl was happiest when helping others. Deanie enjoyed dancing, talking, and eating as much as she disliked doing homework. She fully accomplished her secretarial training in school and would like to put it to use after graduation as a secretary or beautician.

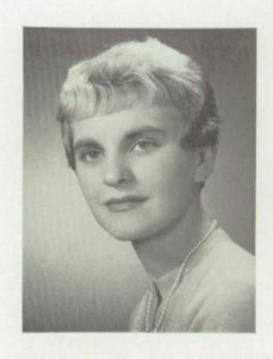

Secretarial Course. Glee Club 2; Chorus 2, 3; Gymnastic Club 3; Gym Team 1, 2; Homeroom Treasurer 1, 2.

. . . Which Seemed So Remote . . .

MARY ANN C. BANYAS 653 FURNACE STREET

Quiet, yet flirtatious and gay, Mary Ann was always a good companion. Most of her spare time was spent listening to popular music, ice skating, or motorcycling. Dependable and cooperative, Mary Ann will be well liked by her co-workers when she begins her clerical work.

COMMERCIAL COURSE. Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Recreational Swimming Club 2, 3; Chess and Checkers Club 1.

BETTY F. BARRACLOUGH 1224 Pennsylvania Avenue

Versatility and friendliness are Betty's two greatest assets. Always willing to accept responsibility, she diligently executed her many duties as class managing editor of the Tattler and skillful artist of the Hi Jeff. Betty possesses the ingenuity and talent needed in the field of commercial art.

College Preparatory Course. Tattler Staff (Class Managing Editor) 3; Hi Jeff Staff (Artist) 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Declamation Contest 2; Homeroom Treasurer 2; Gym Team 2, 3.

JOHN K. BAUMER Emmaus, Route 1

Jack's presence in the classroom enlivened many a dull day. He was a dependable member of the basketball team and a realistic actor in the senior class play. By hard work and practice during the summer months, Jack achieved the rank of swimming instructor. After graduation — the Navy.

College Preparatory Course. Football 1; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 2; Class Play 3; Sports Officiating Club (President) 3; Chess and Checkers Club 2.

Joyce, with her winsome smile, was a neat and attractive member of our colour guard. Her pastimes were dancing, talking in class, and eating. Her pet dislike was doing dishes. Joyce's pleasant manner and willingness to work will assure her success in becoming either a secretary or a beautician.

SECRETARIAL COURSE. Colour Guard 2, 3; Chorus 2; Gymnastic Club 1, 3; Gym Team 1, 2.

. . . To Awed, Humble Freshmen . . .

WILLIAM C. BERGEY 824 EVERGREEN STREET

Coming from Pennridge High School in his senior year, Bill soon became well-known for his portrayal of "Corder Morris" in the senior class play and his rich baritone voice which won him the honor of being soloist in District Chorus. Bill is considering a career in business administration.

College Preparatory Course. Class Play 3; Band 3; Glee Club 3; Chorus 3; Dramatics Club (Treasurer) 3; Baseball 3.

LARUE R. BINDER 207 South Fifth Street

Quiet and reserved, Shorty had a way of winning friends. In her spare time, she watched television, played baseball, and faithfully followed our football games. Her hobbies were collecting records and pictures of movie stars. Her ambition is to become a good secretary.

Secretarial Course. Chess and Checkers Club 1; Leathercraft Club 2; Dramatics Club 3.

RONALD A. BOGERT ALBURTIS, ROUTE 1

A quiet and studious member of the industrial arts section, Ronnie was both an ardent outdoorsman and amateur hunter. Ice skating, fishing, and mechanics also aroused his interest. In school Ronnie devoted his time and talents to the projectionists club.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS COURSE. Projectionists Club 1, 2, 3; Rifle Club 2; Hunting and Fishing Club 3.

LUCILLE R. BROBST 552 MINOR STREET

Always ready with an amusing remark to spark our conversations, Lucille was an anecdote for boredom. With a major role in the senior class play, she displayed vast dramatic ability. Lucille could be serious, however, and was active in many church functions. Her future holds a degree in nursing.

College Preparatory Course. Glee Club 1, 2, (Treasurer) 3; Chorus 2, 3; Library Club 1, (Vice President) 2; Class Play 3; Tattler Staff (Advertising Manager) 3.

. . . Now Full-fledged Graduates . . .

LARRY E. CARL MACUNGIE, ROUTE 1

Larry was primarily interested in golf. When he was not playing the game, he dreamed about it, which was of great avail, for he won the golf tournament in his junior year. Other favorite sports included fishing and swimming, but it is not surprising that Larry's goal in life is to become a professional golfer.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS COURSE. Band 1, 2, 3; Golf Club 1, (Secretary) 2, (Vice President) 3.

BARBARA A. E. CLEINOW 332 North First Street

Barb, carefree and easy-going, never was bothered by anything. A ready solution for her friend's troubles made them look to her for advice. Barb was easily absorbed in records or a good book. To return to Germany and further her education is her plan for the future.

Secretarial Course. Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Recreational Swimming Club 2; Gymnastic Club 1, (President) 3; Gym Team 1.

SANDRA A. CLEWELL OLD ZIONSVILLE

Sandi will be remembered especially for her neatness, good grooming, beautiful hair, incessant chattering, and constant flirting. She had excellent salesmanship and ably served as an advertising editor on the Tattler staff. Sandi desires to be either a buyer or a model for a clothing store.

Home Living Course. Chorus 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Tattler Staff (Advertising Manager) 3; Recreational Swimming Club 2; Chess and Checkers Club 1.

JOAN E. CLOUSER 1427 Pennsylvania Avenue

Joan was changeable as the weather. One moment she was blushing because of an embarrassing situation; the next, she was giving one of the fellows "heart trouble." Her understanding disposition caused many people to turn to her for advice. Joan's speed, accuracy, and reliability will make her a successful secretary.

Secretarial Course. Hi Jeff Staff 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Typewriting Club 1; Homeroom Secretary 2.

. . . Gaining Higher Levels . . .

ROBERT C. CONFER ALBURTIS

A big, good-natured member of the industrial arts class, Bob was well liked by his fellow classmates for his pleasing personality. He spent his spare time hunting in the fields of Alburtis and fishing in the nearby streams. After graduation — military service.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS COURSE. Conservation and Wildlife Club 1; Rifle Club 2; Hunting and Fishing Club 3.

NANCY F. CONRAD Macungie, Route 1

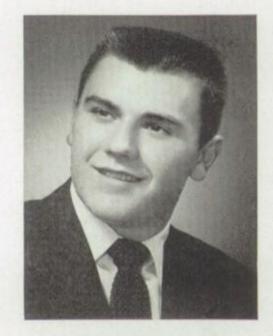

Sincere, talkative, and trim, are the words for Nan. In our music programs she displayed her originality and gracefulness as a dancer. She loved nothing better than swimming, ice skating, and dancing. Her willingness and patience will enable Nancy to be an excellent dance instructor.

SECRETARIAL COURSE. Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Typewriting Club 1; Needlecraft Club 3; Gym Team 1; Dramatics Club 2.

Athletically minded, Barry showed his skill on the field, earning letters in both baseball and football. Happy-go-lucky, his pastimes were playing golf and attending movies. Barry's ambition is to enlist in the Air Force and make it his career.

General Course. Football 1, 2, (Co-Captain) 3; Chess and Checkers Club 1; Sports Officiating Club 2; Varsity "E" Club 3; Baseball 3.

LEROY K. COPE MACUNGIE, ROUTE 1

Whenever "hot rods" and "drags" were mentioned, Copey, thrusting his hands deep into his blue jeans pockets, would discuss in great detail his '41 Ford with the engine he rebuilt. It is understandable that Leroy wants to be an automotive engineer after serving in the United States Navy.

College Preparatory Course. Gymnastic Club 1; Stage Crew Club 2, 3.

. . . Ever Striving To Learn . . .

JOHN L. CRAUMER 503 North Third Street

Skilled in outdoor sports, John was an enduring miler in track, an excellent swimmer, and an agile tennis player. During his spare time he usually engaged in running to keep in shape. John, though a funloving fellow, was shy around girls. His plans after graduation—the Coast Guard.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS COURSE. Tennis Club 2, 3; Wrestling (Student Manager) 3; Varsity "E" Club 3; Track 1, 2, 3.

JEAN B. CROSSLEY 652 MINOR STREET

At all times ready to help others, Jean was a dependable friend. Her quiet but joyful demeanor lifted the spirits of others and made her well-liked. Watching television, sports, and studying for that big test were Jean's pastimes. Especially skilled in bookkeeping, she hopes to do office work in the future.

SECRETARIAL COURSE. Typewriting Club 1; Leathercraft Club 2.

GLORIA K. DAVID 505 East Harrison Street

Carefree, fun loving, and bubbling with laughter, Gloria usually enlivened the crowd with her clever antics. This incessant chatterer will long be remembered for her rhythmic dancing — especially her jitterbugging. Gloria is interested in hair styling, and is planning to study cosmotology.

College Preparatory Course. Gym Team 2; Recreational Swimming Club 2; Chess and Checkers Club 1; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Tattler Staff (Advertising Manager) 3.

MARY ANN DEISCHER 515 North Third Street

As a member of the Allentown Symphony and our representative to All-State Orchestra, Mary Ann has already started her career as a professional celloist. Her enthusiastic participation in numerous activities — athletic, musical, and social — won her the honor of being chosen Football Queen.

College Preparatory Course. Class Treasurer 1, 2; Tattler Staff (Sports Editor) 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Cheerleader 2, (Captain) 3; Concert Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Student Council 1; Library Club (Treasurer) 1, 2; Varsity "E" Club 2, (Treasurer) 3; Gym Team 1, 2, 3; Homeroom Treasurer 1, 2, 3.

... Accepting Responsibilities ...

EDWARD G. DELL EAST TEXAS

Beneath his thoughtful demeanor and serious expression, Dippy possessed a jovial manner which drew much laughter from his friends. He was fond of roller skating and constructing model airplanes. Dippy was an enthusiastic member of the Civil Air Patrol. His experience will prove valuable in the United States Air Force.

GENERAL COURSE. Projectionists Club 1; Rifle Club 2; Science and Photography Club (Secretary) 3.

JANE L. DIEFENDERFER 316 North Second Street

Capability, versatility, and scholarship won Jane both the crown of the Junior Prom Queen and the respect of her fellow students. Jane, a leader of the class, executed with efficiency her many responsibilities. Abounding in energy, she was a competent cheerleader and star forward of our girls' basketball team. Jane's career — medical secretary.

College Preparatory Course. Class Secretary 1, 2, 3; Tattler Staff (Feature Managing Editor) 3; Hi Jeff Staff 2, 3; Class Play 3; Basketball 1, 2, (Captain) 3; Varsity "E" Club 2, (Secretary) 3; Gym Team 1, 2, 3; Homeroom Secretary 2; Chess and Checkers Club 1.

Respected and admired by both class and teammates, Doc was an ardent sports fan when not on the gridiron. Being serious minded he tried to perfect his bowling score, but fun and frolic usually won out. Doc is planning a career in the Air Force.

GENERAL COURSE. Football 1, 3; Gymnastic Club 1, 2, 3; Baseball 3.

LEON J. DRIES JR. 118 JOHN STREET

A proficient member of the Projectionists Club, Leon showed many educational films during school. As vice president of the club, he scheduled films, and kept the projectors in running order. He also spent many happy hours fashioning woodcraft. To be a radio-television technician is Leon's desire.

GENERAL COURSE. Projectionists Club 1, 2, (Vice President) 3; Model Airplane Club 2.

. . . With Valuable Experience . . .

ELWOOD L. ECK ZIONSVILLE

Elly, a fun-loving and witty fellow, was always ready to help someone. He was an ardent sports fan and especially liked baseball and basketball. In his spare time he hunted and trapped. After serving in the armed forces Elly plans to take up farming.

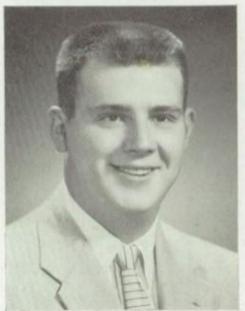

INDUSTRIAL ARTS COURSE. Football 2; Gymnastic Club 1; Rifle Club 2; Hunting and Fishing Club (Vice President) 3.

BRADLEY E. ECKHART Macungie

Brad, a good natured and well-liked fellow, spent most of his spare time hunting or working in the bakery. Although courteous and sociable with girls, he was not especially interested in them. Boosting the manpower of the United States Air Force is Brad's main ambition.

GENERAL COURSE. Golf Club 1, 2, 3.

LARRY H. EISENHARD 517 Broad Street

Never having much to say unless with friends, Larry was fond of popular records and anyone who could compete in his favorite game—chess. He was a member of the Emmaus Athletic Club and enjoyed good movies and driving. Larry's chosen career is the Air Force.

GENERAL COURSE. Chess and Checkers Club 1, 2.

RONALD F. ERDMAN Emmaus, Route 1

A deep respect for classmates and teachers alike characterized Ronnie's considerate and courteous personality. He attended school functions and was inspired by lively polkas. Because of his willingness to please others, Ronnie would like to further his education in order to attend theological seminary.

GENERAL COURSE. Glee Club 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Golf Club 1, 2, 3.

. . . Looking Back, They Are Proud . . .

RICHARD M. FAUST Wescosville

A habitual dreamer, Dick was usually staring into space, dreaming of a futuristic, sensational hot rod, or a dream girl of exquisite beauty and charm. He believed in getting the most out of life with the minimum amount of effort; nevertheless, Dick intends to serve in the United States Marine Corps.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS COURSE. Football 2; Gymnastic Club 1.

DARLA J. FELLMAN 230 North Second Street

A chirping, chattering, and twittering "jenny wren," Darla enlivened parties, clowned at dances, and animated many a dull classroom. She served ably and seriously as club editor of the Tattler. Darla will attend college to study physical education.

College Preparatory Course. Tattler Staff (Club Editor) 3; Hi Jeff Staff 1, 2; Dolphin Club 2, 3; Gym Team 1, 2; Homeroom Secretary 1, 2, 3; Student Council 1, 2.

TOM H. FEY 321 BARRETT STREET

St. Louis' loss of a district wrestling champ, was Emmaus' gain of a loyal sports enthusiast. Fierce on the mats — quiet, sincere, and witty in class, Tom has made many friends. He has a keen, logical mind and an amiable personality, both prerequisites for a successful career in business administration.

COLLEGE PREPARATORY COURSE. Class Play 3; Football 3; Wrestling 3; Wrestling Club 3.

SUZANNE M. FINK 164 Pine Street

Even tempered, diplomatic, and friendly, Suzie became a capable club managing editor of the Tattler. She enjoyed making someone happy with one of her beautifully knitted sweaters. Adjusting first graders to school life is Suzie's future desire.

College Preparatory Course. Tattler Staff (Club Managing Editor) 3; Glee Club 1, 2, (Vice President) 3; Chorus 2, (Secretary) 3; Chess and Checkers Club (Secretary-Treasurer) 1; Homeroom Secretary 1, 2, 3.

... Of Their Four Happy Years ...

MARJORIE A. FISHER 184 PINE STREET

This mischievous girl who feigned innocence with a sweet smile was flirtatious and chattered endlessly. A transfer from Allentown, and an honor student, Marge made friends rapidly. She enjoyed bowling, ice skating, and swimming. After graduation Marge intends to go to college and later become a medical secretary.

Secretarial Course. Glee Club 2, 3; Gymnastic Club 3; Homeroom Treasurer 3.

MARY ANN FREDERICK 406 CHESTNUT STREET

Inexhaustible chattering, infectious laughter, and Mary Ann are inseparable. Neat, congenial, and talented, she was well-liked and remembered for her outstanding rendition of the Can Can. In addition to these traits, Mary Ann has the intelligence necessary for success in the medical field.

College Preparatory Course. Glee Club 1, 3; Gym Team 1, 3; Homeroom Treasurer 3; Library Club 1, 2; Tattler Staff (Club Editor) 3.

GLENN E. FRETZ 404 Keystone Avenue

To be a real estate broker and to follow in his father's footsteps is Glenn's ultimate aim. His keen mind for business, sociability, humor, neatness, and handsome appearance are his excellent attributes. He was popular and had numerous friends. Glenn's primary goal — a college degree in business administration.

College Preparatory Course. Glee Club 3; Chorus 3; Gymnastic Club 1; Chess and Checkers Club 2; Hunting and Fishing Club 3; Track 1.

NANCY L. GEIGER 615 WALNUT STREET

An outstanding seamstress, Nancy enjoyed the challenge of following an intricate suit or dress pattern. Her long periods of silence were punctuated by an occasional outburst of temper. However, Nancy reflected a sound, mature philosophy of life in anticipation of a happy future centered around the home and church.

Home Living Course. Glee Club 1, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Typewriting Club 1; Needlecraft Club 2, (Vice President) 3.

... Of The Record Maintained ...

ETHELMAE L. GERHART 503 Harrison Street

Small and attractive, Ethel, as she was known to her friends, found pleasure in roller skating, ice skating, or driving her classmates to football games. Her ambition is first—to earn a degree in nursing and then to settle down with a family and home in the country.

Home Living Course. Band 1, 2; Glee Club 1; Chorus 2; Home Nursing Club (Vice President) 1; Recreational Swimming Club 2; Tennis Club 3.

HERMAN P. E. GREENAWALT II ALBURTIS

Spending most of his time enjoying the finer elements of music, this jolly and fun-loving fellow was an accomplished trumpeter. During the summer, while at scout camp, Hermie served as a cooking instructor and became very interested in this art. Upon graduation—either a career as a chef or a barber.

GENERAL COURSE. Band 1, 2, 3; Concert Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Dance Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Conservation and Wildlife Club (Secretary) 1.

LANA D. GREISS Macungie

A gifted musician, Lana hopes to teach music. She willingly shared her talents in musical programs and as an accomplished clarinetist represented our school in the Eastern District Band. Greatly admired and respected, Lana was chosen as an attendant to the Prom Queen.

College Preparatory Course. Tattler Staff (Advertising Manager) 3; Band 1, (Recording Secretary) 2, (President) 3; Concert Orchestra 1, (Secretary) 2, (President) 3; Dance Orchestra 2; Chorus 2, 3; Tri-Hi-Y Club 1; Gym Team 1, 2, 3.

PATRICIA B. GUINTHER Emmaus, Route 1

As president of the Dolphin Club, Pat exhibited her prowess in aquatics. With her sparkling smile, and neat appearance, she was a perfect "Joan" in the senior class play. Pat has many desirable attributes for elementary teaching — ability to get along with others, patience, and most important — love of children.

College Preparatory Course. Tattler Staff (Class Editor) 3; Hi Jeff Staff 1, (Circulation Manager) 2; Class Play 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3; Dolphin Club 2, (President) 3; Gym Team 1, 2, 3; Homeroom Secretary 1.

. . . The Tasks Well Accomplished . . .

DONNA L. HAGER 109 Fox Street

Well groomed, with a flair for wearing clothes well, Donna made a striking appearance in our halls. Eating, watching television, and "her fellow" took much time; but sewing was one of her favorite hobbies. Considerate, dependable, and industrious — Donna will make an excellent housewife.

COMMERCIAL COURSE. Needlecraft Club (President) 3; Tri-Hi-Y Club 1; Glee Club 1.

JUNE A. HAMERSLY Wescosville

A cheerful and loyal friend to all, June usually had a joke to tell. Fond of music, she was ready at all times to lend her voice in a trio or quartet and took active part in school programs. June's plans for the future are to get married, and have a nice home and family.

COMMERCIAL COURSE. Typewriting Club 1; Needlecraft Club 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Chorus 2, 3.

JOHN F. HARTLE 640 Fernwood Street

An outdoorsman at heart, John completed many hiking and camping jaunts in the neighboring countryside. He participated in competitive sports and willingly contributed his services to any cause. Immediately after graduation John plans to serve in the United States Army and then earn a degree in civil engineering.

College Preparatory Course. Typewriting Club 1; Rifle Club 2; Sports Officiating Club 3.

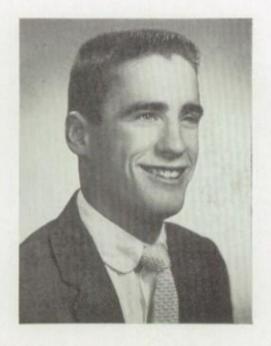

ELIZABETH A. HERRICK Wescosville

Betty, as she was known by her classmates, was quiet but enjoyed various activities such as dancing, roller skating, and collecting records. Her favorite sport was football. Although Betty would like to be a telephone operator, she primarily desires to be a homemaker.

HOME LIVING COURSE.

. . . Taking Everything In Stride . . .

LARRY V. HERRING ZIONSVILLE, ROUTE 1

Fish will be remembered not only as an outstanding tackle on the gridiron, but also as a fearless, dauntless hero in pursuit of a deer dashing through the hall. The girls especially will remember him as the "Romeo" of their class. After military service, Larry plans to be an automobile mechanic.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS COURSE. Football 2, 3; Track 1; Gymnastic Club 1, 2, (Vice President) 3; Varsity "E" Club 3.

RICHARD F. HILBERT 629 FURNACE STREET

The embodiment of muscles, stamina, and agility, Dick deserved the laurels he won on the gridiron and on the hardwoods. He was intensely enthusiastic about sports. After fulfilling his obligation to the Army Reserves, Dick hopes to make football his career.

General Course. Football 1, 2, (Co-Captain) 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Track 1, 2, 3; Gym Team 2, 3; Varsity "E" Club 1, 2, (President) 3.

HELEN R. HILLEGASS

534 NORTH STREET

Attractive, well-groomed, and optimistic describes Helen, who found pleasure in "do-it-yourself" projects and making fine clothing. She spent her spare time dating, ice skating, and swimming. Being creative, Helen is sure to fulfill her desire to be an interior decorator.

OFFICE PRACTICE

Under the direction of Mr. George Butler, 12S students learn the fundamentals and operation of electric typewriters, dictating and transcribing units, adding and calculating machines.

PRINTING

Operating the printing presses and setting up type are a few of the skills acquired by the 12I boys taking the Industrial Arts course. Their instructor is Mr. Glenn Heckman.

PROBLEMS OF DEMOCRACY

To acquaint students with the responsibility of analyzing the news, weekly reports on the world situation are presented by students of 12G under the direction of Mr. William Lobb.

History of the Class of 1957

On September 9, 1953, one hundred ninety students began their careers at Emmaus High School. The class was divided into five sections. Two were assigned to the Junior High School and the remaining three sections to the High School. Displaying many talents, the class proudly presented their minstrel, "Freshman Follies," February 19. They successfully closed the year with their solo dance, "The Blue Bell Ball," held May 1.

Having gained a little more importance, this enthusiastic class of one hundred seventy-three sophomores assembled and elected capable officers to undertake the responsibilities of the class. The harmonious class colors, green and gray, and the class flower, the yellow rose were chosen. Their first dance held December 18, was appropriately named "Yuletide Twirl" and featured the music of the Continentals. Couples danced around the snow covered evergreen and under mistletoe and Christmas streamers which decorated the gym. May 14, a delightful spring evening, made a superb setting for their final dance in the old high school, "Farewell to Jeff."

As juniors, the class proved worthy of the role of upperclassmen by obtaining an average percentile rank of 85 in the Iowa Tests of Educational Development. Betty Barraclough captured top honors in the Junior Declamation Contest March 13. The Moonlight Serenaders furnished the music for their "St. Patrick's Day Dance" on March 17. Then the night everyone had been dreaming of, Friday, April 20, arrived—the Junior Prom, held at the Frolics Ballroom.

ADVISERS, Seated: Mr. Elwood Ortt, Mr. George Butler. Standing: Mrs. Gladys Dissinger, Mr. Alfred Neff.

OFFICERS, Seated: Millie Lorish (Assistant Secretary), Harriet Laudenslager (Treasurer), Jane Diefenderfer (Secretary). Standing: Terry Miller (Vice President), Paul Kozak, (President).

A huge umbrella with flowers cascading from it was in the center of the ballroom, while smaller umbrellas and silver raindrops adorned the walls, completing the theme of "April Showers." The coronation of the King and Queen at the beautifully decorated throne was held at intermission time as Bud Rader's Orchestra played "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody". An after Prom jam session called "Beat the Clock," including a floor show and pre-dawn breakfast followed. They gave a final tribute to the senior class by presenting the "Senior Farewell," June 9.

At last, as seniors, they were to realize the joys and cares which accompany this honored rank. On November 3 the girls escorted their beaux to the "Sadie Hawkins Dance." The senior class play, "The Shop at Sly Corner," was a thrilling, never-to-be-forgotten event, presented November 16 and 17. The slave sale, pizza, birch beer garden, and hall of horrors made the Senior Jamboree, held January 19, a great success. In honor of St. Valentine, they sponsored the "Sweetheart Swirl" February 16. In formal attire they attended the Senior Ball May 28 at the Americus Hotel. This was a suitable climax to their social life at Emmaus High School. On June 2 they solemnly bowed their heads in prayer during Baccalaureate services, realizing their high school days were nearly completed. Two days later, one hundred fortythree seniors experienced the thrill and sadness that Commencement brings. Thus ended four happy years as the Class of 1957 was graduated.

Masses

Junior Class

The capability and uniqueness of the Junior Class can well be illustrated by their three social functions. On December 1, the juniors scattered the cafeteria with bales of hay and presented an enjoyable square dance, "The Hayseed Hop." The class held the Junior Declamation Contest on March 12, with James Gardner capturing top honors. Highlighting the year was the Junior Prom, a gala affair held at the Americus Hotel. An after-Prom affair was again sponsored by various civic groups in the community. The final social event was the traditional "Senior Farewell" at which the juniors played host to their worthy predecessors, the seniors.

OFFICERS: Kenneth Link (Treasurer), William Widmyer (Vice President), Mary Davis (Secretary), Bonnie Saylor (Assistant Secretary), Stephen Kozy (President).

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class, two hundred twenty-one strong, wasted no time in preparing for the immediate school term. Bake sales, successfully held at lunch time, boosted the financial status of the class and enabled them to plan for two elaborate social functions. On December 15, amid an atmosphere of snow men, candy canes, and mistletoe, their "Candy Cane Hop" was held, and everyone danced to the music of the Royal Dukes. Enthusiastic academically, as well as socially, the class has attained a high scholastic standing. Their final dance, held on May 18, helped bring their school year to a wonderful climax.

Features

Candid Camera Captured Incidents of a School Day

7:00 a.m. — Surely Mrs. Jackson will agree that Gary did not know the meaning of "Early to Rise."

8:35 to 11:00 — Changing books at the lockers (left) was a regular routine. Assembly programs (center), educational and entertaining, were presented each week by homerooms.

First aid instructions (right) were given by Miss Graver, the school nurse.

1:30 to 3:30 — Fun and physical training were combined as three weeks of swimming (left) were followed by three weeks of gym (center). A quick stop at the drinking fountain (right) was always refreshing before continuing to the next class.

8:20 a.m. — Early morning walks awoke students as they trudged to school for the beginning of another day.

8:30 a.m. — Each day began with morning devotions. Mrs. Moyer led her homeroom in the Lord's Prayer.

11:00 to 1:30 — Lunch lines (left) went hand in hand with cake sales (center), sponsored by various organizations, as

3:30 p.m. — Neither snow nor rain prevented buses from arriving for eager students to start their journey home.

9:00 p.m. — After a hearty supper, Annette Seidel returned to the privacy of her room to do last minute homework with the determination that tonight it must be "Early to Bed."

"GRAB YER FELLA" was the slogan as the senior class presented the Sadie Hawkins Dance, November 3.

"MICKEY'S MARKER," her prize-winning monologue, was reviewed by Betty Barraclough, 1956 Junior Declamation Contest champion.

MUSIC REPRESENTATIVES: M.A. Deischer (District Chorus, District and State Orchestra), L. Greiss (District Band), J. Gardner (District Band), W. Bergey (District and State Chorus), D. Winzer (District Chorus, District and State Band).

SENIOR JAMBOREE, Left: Canes and leis provided the incentive for pitchers to try their luck. Center: Shirley Kistler and Sharon Sweitzer revealed secrets of the future.

Co-curricular Activities

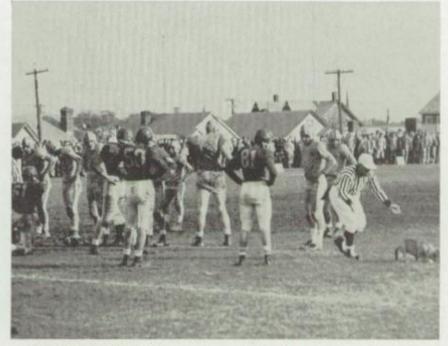

"WHAT'LL YOU BID?" A new idea was incorporated into the annual Senior Jamboree when a slave sale was conducted in the gymnasium. Auctioneer Paul Menzel accepted bids ranging from sixty cents to eighteen dollars for nineteen popular seniors. On Monday, January 21, the slaves catered to their master's every reasonable wish.

GUILTY OR NOT GUILTY? Judge Paul Kozak listened attentively as Mr. Kenneth Moyer testified under the scrutiny of Prosecuting Attorney Gary Jackson.

"TIME OUT!" The referee halted action and tried to persuade a stray puppy to enjoy the Thanksgiving game from the sidelines.

EMMAUS HIGH FACULTY strutted their finery prior to their annual basketball game with the Slatington High School faculty.

YOUNG THESPIANS rehearsed a dramatic scene from the senior class play under the supervision of Coach Woodrow Schaadt.

Seated: Jane Diefenderfer (Secretary), Mary Ann Deischer (Treasurer), Paul Kozak (Burgess), Robert Wessner (Council President), Patricia Guinther (Councilwoman), William Platt (Solicitor). Standing: John Craumer (Tax Assessor), Richard Aten (Tax Collector), Elwood Eck (Councilman), Robert

Students Governed Emmaus for a Day

Borough officials, school administrators, and social studies, teachers cooperatively sponsored the third annual Borough Student Government Day on February 18.

Twenty-three candidates from the senior class filed petitions for the elected offices with the required ten signatures of any junior or senior, and in turn prepared campaign speeches which were given at a political rally in the school auditorium on January 30. Mr. William Lobb was the chairman of the program and introduced the candidates. On January 31 and February 1, upperclassmen voted by machine which was granted by the Lehigh County Commissioners.

The successful candidates met and appointed fellow students to the offices of Secretary, Treasurer, Borough Supervisor, Borough Solicitor, Chief of Police, Fire Chief, and Chaplain. Student officials were given two opportunities to observe municipal operations before they took their seats in Council. They attended a regular council meeting on February 4 and toured the borough with their counterparts on February 9. On February 18, student officials held their own council meeting bringing the 1957 Student Government Day to a successful close.

During the following weeks the Student Government officials were dinner guests of the Lions and Rotary Clubs of Emmaus.

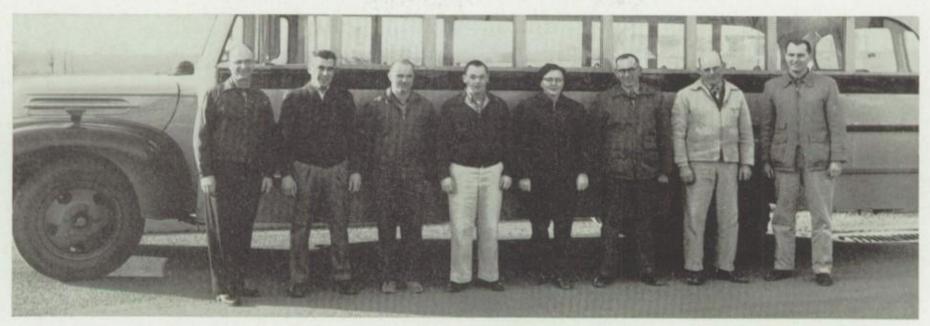

JUNIOR STUDENTS REGISTERED and waited their turn to exercise their right to vote, as Larry Schwartz, confident that he had chosen the best man, left the booth.

COMBINED GYM CLASSES helped boys and girls develop grace in both modern and square dancing.

"FIGHT TEAM!" shouted the boy cheerleaders as they changed places with the girls for a new fashioned pep rally.

AMBITIOUS ALUMNAE got together to discuss their days' work as student teachers. Miss Diane Yaeck and Miss Bernice Deveraux returned to Emmaus High School this year to fulfill their teaching requirements as seniors at Moravian College. They both graduated from Emmaus with the Class of 1953, and are majoring in sociology at college.

OUTSTANDING FASHIONS which highlighted the school year included crewneck sweaters, Scottish kilts, wrap-around skirts with large safety pins, and striped ivy league shirts.

THE PARADE OF SOCKS ended as these two pair were chosen "the socks with the most sock."

April Showers Theme of 1956 Junior Prom

After-Prom Party Staged by Civic Clubs

April 20, 1956, was a date that will long be remembered by the Class of 1957, for this was the night of the long-awaited Junior Prom. By 9:00 p.m. approximately one hundred fifty couples had arrived at the beautifully decorated Frolics Ballroom in Allentown.

As the couples awaited the first strains of music of Bud Rader's Orchestra they took cognizance of the clever decorations portraying the "April Showers" theme. In the center of the spacious ballroom hung a large umbrella filled with many brightly colored flowers. Smaller umbrellas and silver raindrops adorned the surrounding walls.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Queen and King of the Junior Prom. A court of four preceded the Queen, Jane Diefenderfer, and King, Lee Schuster, down the aisle to the throne. Jane was crowned by Sandra Scherer, Queen of the Class of 1956, and Lee, by the Class President, James Iobst.

For the first time in Emmaus an after-prom party was sponsored by local civic organizations. At midnight a buffet lunch was served in the ballroom. After the lunch the caravan of cars, headed by an Allentown policeman, left for the Owls Home in Emmaus. There the couples engaged in more dancing — this time to the music of Ginger Scharkazy's Orchestra. At 4:00 a.m., following a floorshow and breakfast, the party ended.

"I COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT to the music of Bud Rader and his Orchestra," agreed the juniors and their guests, for whom the night had ended far too soon.

The large green, flower-filled umbrella hanging overhead carried out the theme "April Showers" and added to the delightful atmosphere.

POLICE ESCORT — A SAFETY MEASURE

A police escort was provided to assure the students, as well as their parents, a safe and speedy journey from the Frolics Ballroom to the Owls Home in Emmaus, where an after-prom party was held. At the right, Officer Joe Briggs chatted with Alice Wotring and Elmer Long. Seated in the car were Barbara Johnston and Thomas Underwood.

Mystery with a Tragic Ending

On November 15, 16, and 17 the Senior Class Play was presented under the direction of Mr. Woodrow Schaadt and his student assistants, Jane Diefenderfer and Paul Kozak. Members of the cast displayed fine dramatic ability and received hearty applause from enthusiastic audiences.

The plot of "The Shop on Sly Corner" revolved around Descius Heiss, who appeared to sell antiques but actually bought and sold stolen jewelry. Archie Fellows, who accidently discovered the secret, blackmailed Descius, his employer. When Archie demanded the hand of his employer's daughter, Margaret, who was engaged to a young doctor, Descius unsuccessfully tried to kill him with a poison dart. Descius, thinking that the police had finally caught him, killed himself. He was unaware that the inspector's visit was in reference to an antique which he admired.

The success of the play also depended upon the construction and painting of scenery under the direction of Miss Mary Miller and Mr. John Child and those who efficiently served on the various committees.

PLAY DIRECTOR, Mr. Woodrow Schaadt, explains a subtle effect in acting to student directors Jane Diefenderfer and Paul Kozak, during play rehearsal.

ARCHIE CAUGHT DES-CIUS in the act of melting stolen jewelry behind the false fireplace where the smelting furnace was hidden. Descius was then blackmailed by Archie to pay large sums of money. Archie's greed finally led to his death.

MEMBERS OF THE HONOR CAST, who faithfully devoted their time to studying their roles, attending rehearsals, and preparing to meet any situation which might have occurred during the presentation of the play were, First row: Charles Johnson, Madelyn Lippowitsch, Harriet Laudenslager, Richard Aten. Second row: John Hartle, Janice Nonnemacher, Alice Wotring, Paul Kozak.

DESCIUS COMMITTED SUICIDE with a poison dart in the presence of Robert and Aunt Matilda, when he had an unexpected visitor, the police inspector. After many years of outwitting the police, he thought he had been discovered for his underground work and also for the murder of Archie. He was unaware that the reason for the inspector's visit was in reference to an antique which had caught his eye.

Intricate Needlework Mastered

To teach all forms of needlework and to increase the knowledge of those already familiar with the art was the purpose of the Needlecraft Club. Conversation and fun went hand in hand with the crocheting of rugs, embroidering of linen tablecloths and the knitting of sweaters, mittens, and scarfs. During the year club members were privileged to visit Freeman's Jewelry Store where they observed many beautiful pieces of jewelry and china, and the Phoebe Floral Shop where they viewed numerous displays of corsages, wedding bouquets, and flower arrangements.

Key Cases Financed Leathercraft Club

The making and selling of key cases was a means to an end for the Leather-craft Club throughout the first semester. Members learned new leathercraft techniques and sold articles which financed the cost of leather materials for the remainder of the year. During the second semester, projects included the making of purses, wallets, belts, and pins. A trip to New Hope Art Colony, where all types of crafts are displayed, was taken in spring.

Aeronauts Procured Experience

Pupils interested in aeronautics were invited to become a member of the Model Airplane Club. This adventurous group's club periods were devoted almost entirely to discussions concerning model airplane construction and the actual assembling of unique models. When weather permitted, the spacious area around the tennis courts provided an ideal environment for testing the mechanical efficiency of their planes. A point system, based on the amount of time the plane remained in the air, number of flights made by members during the year, proper take-offs and landings, and steadiness and control of plane while in flight, was established. An award was presented to the fellow who acquired the highest amount of points throughout the year.

FOOTBALL QUEEN, Mary Ann Deischer, was crowned by Student Council President, Paul Kozak, at a dance sponsored by the Student Council and held in the cafeteria Thanksgiving evening. She was elected by the student body as the senior girl who did the most to support the football team during 1956.

IVY LEAGUE AND POR K-PIE HATS were modeled by Student Council members Bonnie Saylor and John Yarema wearing two styles of the Pork-Pie, Bonnie Randall carrying an Ivy League hat, and Ward Ohl sporting another type Pork-pie hat. The selling of these attractive green and gold hats and pennants was one of the many projects sponsored by the Student Council.

"UP N' ATOM," one of the nation's leading educational science shows, was presented on January 7. It was one of the four lyceum programs sponsored by the Student Council. The program consisted of demonstrations of various scientific wonders, such as: breaking glass with sound waves and the miracle of cooking on a cold stove.

Council Sponsored Many Activities

Group Endeavored to Meet Student Needs

The Student Council was composed of one representative from each homeroom. Officers were elected in a special assembly by the student body. Weekly meetings, under the supervision of Mr. Richard Keim, were held to discuss school problems and complaints arising during homeroom periods. They sponsored dances after home football games, the annual New Year's Eve Dance, many entertaining and educational lyceum programs, and the sale of school hats and pennants. Emmaus was represented at the Penn State workshop last July by Paul Kozak and James Minnich. During the year members attended conventions at Parkland and Southern Lehigh High Schools.

Students Acquired Typing Skills

"I finally did it!" sighed members of the Typewriting Club after completing a correct line of the alphabet. Students in this club were those whose curriculum did not include typewriting and wanted to learn the fundamentals of typing.

First row: Carol Christman, Gloria Gehman, Jane Laser, Sara Brensinger (Treasurer), Arlan Dietrich. Second row:

Anna Mae Kiriposki, Carol Blose, Carole Heller, Shirley Heintzelman, Robert Nichter. Third row: Nancy Herbster, Carol Haas, Chirlin Johnson, Ronald Engleman, Barry Heintzelman. Stagecrew Assisted in Productions

Boys in the Stagecrew Club spent many hours making scenery for programs and shows which were presented to the students and public. They created outstanding scenes with their skillful carpentry and lighting ability. The stagecrew was credited with the successful handling of all stage equipment during shows, and the building of stage scenery for the senior class play. First row: James McFarland, Robert Kohler, Roger Guinther, Lester Miller, William Whiteknight, Richard Adams, Charles Beiber, James DeLong. Second row: Thomas Godusky, Terrance Evangelista, Lee Klitzner, Richard Bogert, Paul Haiges, Larry Stephen (Vice President), William Reichard, Mr. John Child (Adviser). Third row: Terrance Wieder (Secretary-Treasurer), Donald Stoeckel, Stanley Labenburg, Ronald Schantz, Dale Stoeckel (President), Bruce David, Ronald Schnyder.

Girls Gain Knowledge of Nursing

Girls interested in nursing techniques were encouraged to join the Home Nursing Club. Lectures and films were used to demonstrate and teach the principles of first aid, baby care, and bed-making. To observe the professional aspect of nursing, the members toured the Hospital of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.

Seated: Gloria DeLong, Mary Ann Reinhard, Patricia Schantzenbach, Miss Marcella Graver (Adviser), Lois Eichner, Barbara Lee, Joyce Engleman. Standing: Bonnie Saylor, Jean Glass (Vice President), Ethel Debus, Sandra Miller, Marlene Roth, Darlene Hinkel, Eleanor Dreas (Secretary), Marlene Alderfer, Rosemary Houser, Sara Polster, Shirley Madtes (President), Shirley Tamerler, Sandra Shaffer (Treasurer), Faye Overlauer, Darlene Moser, Brenda Piger, Sara Miller, Linda Herman, Barbara Fedorisko, Sandra Hillegass, Delores Shankweiler.

Amateurs Learn Acting Profession

Members of the Drama Guild were students who had a desire to learn the fundamentals of acting. They presented a play, "A Quiet Christmas," in assembly and an evening performance, "Dear Diary," on March 16. During club periods application of make-up and the staging of a play were discussed.

First row: Henry McClenahan, Carol Keim, Jean Hillegas, Barbara Hunsinger, Virginia Guter, Barbara Hackenberg, JoAnn Mace, Brenda Nagle, Judith Hawk, Dale Schneck. THE ELDERLY COUPLE, portrayed by Audrey Knoll and Dennis Salter, is shown waltzing on their golden anniversary to the show's very appropriate theme song, "Anniversary Song."

Frosh Displayed In Variety

The annual Freshman Musical Show with a valentine theme, "Stung By Cupid," was presented on February 9. It was produced by Mr. Errol K. Peters, directed by Donald Winzer, and arranged by Mary Ann Deischer. The production was based on the reminiscences of an elderly couple, portrayed by Audrey Knoll and Dennis Salter, marking their golden wedding anniversary. The "Anniversary Song" was appropriately used as a prelude and finale to the show.

"Standing On the Corner" — watching all the girls go by, perfectly described the couple's meeting. "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing" and other beautiful love songs retraced their wonderful courtship. Fond memories of a pleasant honeymoon trip were recalled with "Moonlight In Vermont" and "Moments To Remember." On their fifth anniversary they saw a grand show including such numbers as "Dinah" and "Bibbidi Bobbidi Boo" with William DeEsch as the Master of Ceremonies. Many favorites like "Moonlight Bay" and "Three Little Words" were sung while taking a sightseeing ferry boat ride. "Two Different Worlds" brought back the far apart feeling they had for each other after a silly little argument which led into a big quarrel. Harsh words were soon forgotten after the singing of the romantic tunes, "No Arms Can Ever Hold You" and "True Love."

Botanists Beautify Solarium

Students interested in botany were invited to join the Solarium Club. Members of the club enjoyed field trips to Ralston Florists, Alrow Orchid Farm, and the Bronx Botanical Park and Zoo in New York. A horticulturist from Ralston Florists addressed the group on the planting, raising, and care of flowers. During the year they planted many varieties of flowers and distributed them to teachers and administrators. The main project of the club was beautifying the north wall of the solarium by starting a lattice of ivy and philodendron.

Dark Room Facilities Utilized

Students interested in photography were invited to become members of the Science and Photography Club. Meetings consisted mostly of discussions on types of cameras, black and white films, colored films, enlargements, and most important, composition which included angle, distance, and placement of objects being photographed. Having secured this well-rounded background, the members proceeded to take pictures which they developed and enlarged in the school's well-equipped dark room. Dues were collected to cover expenses incurred throughout the year. Since this was a newly organized club, members were especially concerned with plans for its future.

Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs Practice To Improve Group Singing

The singing heard throughout the music area during activity periods was easily identified as the Boys' or Girls' Glee Club rehearsals. Both groups entertained the student body during special assemblies. A great deal of time and effort was contributed by every member to the operetta, "No, No, Nanette," and the annual Spring Concert.

Talented Musicians Provided Entertainment With Diversified Music

The Concert Orchestra and Dance Band entertained their audiences with music ranging from well-known classicals to popular rock and roll numbers. The Dance Band used club periods to learn new arrangements and practice familiar songs. They provided entertainment at home basketball games and accompanied performers in the Freshman Music Show. Music for the spring concert, commencement exercises, and the operetta, "No, No, Nanette," was provided by the Concert Orchestra.

Donald Winzer, a sousaphonist, Lana Greiss and James Gardner, both clarinetists, represented Emmaus High School at District Band held at Hamburg. Donald Winzer also received the honor of being the representative at Eastern State Band held at Shamokin. Mary Ann Deischer, a talented cellist, was chosen to represent our school both at District Orchestra at Fountain Hill and State Orchestra at Berwyn.

"No, No, Nanette," a Musical Comedy Presented by Music Clubs

The musical comedy, "No, No, Nanette," was presented by the Chorus and music classes on March 8 and 9 under the supervision of Mr. Errol K. Peters. Mary Ann Deischer was director and general chairman and Donald Winzer served as assistant chairman and pianist.

The story revolves around Nanette whose mother was a schoolmate of Sue Smith, which accounts for Nanette's staying with well-to-do Jimmy and Sue Smith. Sue will not spend any of her husband's money and carries on her penurious habits to extreme. Jimmy was involved with three girls who were after his money.

Bill Early, an attorney and friend of Jimmy, is kept in debt by the extravagance of his wife, Lucille. Sue and Lucille learn of Jimmy's involvement. At this point Nanette is brought into the situation and fears losing the affections of her admirer, Tom Trainor. Finally all is forgiven and Sue starts spending money too fast for her husband.

The Chorus and Glee Clubs added color and atmosphere to the show with popular tunes. Regular Monday rehearsals gave them an opportunity to practice the songs "Tea For Two" and "I Want To Be Happy."

MAIN CHARACTERS, Seated: James Iobst (Jimmy Smith), Gary Jackson (Tom Trainor), William Bergey (Bill Early). Standing: Eleanor Unser (Sue Smith), Sara Jane Brensinger (Lucille Early), Madelyn Lippowitsch (Pauline), Patricia Klan (Nanette).

ORGANIST AND PIANIST, Donald Winzer pleased the audiences with his organ selections and piano accompaniment in "No, No, Nanette." Organ music was always a welcomed addition to assembly programs and shows.

ORCHESTRA, Seated: Thomas Kushinka, Ronald Ziegler, Lana Greiss, Richard Bartholomew, Philip Iobst, Barry Keller, Joanna Fink, Donald Winzer (Assistant Chairman and Pianist), Marguerite Stevens (Pianist), Donna Ohl, Herman Greenawalt, Barrie Leeser, Douglas Hill, Richard Hahn. Checkerboard Games Hold Interest

The aim of the Chess and Checkers Club was for each member to become acquainted with the rules and acquire expertness of both games. Experienced members strove to improve their game and beginners concentrated on the basic fundamentals. After the Christmas holidays the members put forth their best effort to win the tournaments which were held to determine the champions in chess and checkers.

Frosh Participate in Musical Fields

Singing, dancing, and reports on well-known people in the music field highlighted the activities of the Freshman Music Club. Members of the club participated with other freshman to produce the musical show, "Stung by Cupid."

Standing: Mr. Errol K. Peters (Adviser), Robert Bastian.

Racquet Enthusiasts Organize

Fair weather was sure to bring Tennis Club members outdoors for the purpose of gaining experience and improving their game of tennis. Inclement weather, however, was no determent; ping-pong tables were placed in the Industrial Arts Department and the members proceeded in friendly competition. In spring a tennis tournament was sponsored by the club.

Girls Perform Library Tasks

Members of the Library Club assisted the librarian with the mending, filing, and shelving of books. They made displays for the corridor showcases, saw the Broadway show, "Mr. Wonderful," and donated teaching aids to the Day Care Training Center.

Seated: Alyce Bassett, Sandra Fiedler, Charlotte Baker, Chlorina Reith, Sandra Mohr, Judith Havir, Audrey Yocum, Dorothy Bruch (President), Dorothy Clauser (Treasurer), Susanna Persian, Nancy Shollenberger, Brenda Monk, Bertha Caulton (Vice President), Mary Ann Hemphill, Patricia Klan, Doris Sabol, Barbara Reichard. Standing: Patricia Fink, Eleanor Eisenhard, Janice Kirschman, Barbara Gledhill, Brenda Banks, Patricia German, Audrey Welder, Eleanor Danner (Secretary), Brenda Schantzenbach, Zona Cope, Diane Weber, Charlotte Reichard, Nancy Crane, Helen Marsteller, Barbara Scherer, Sandra Heinly, Linda Niess, Darlene Dunton, Rose Marie Gasper, Mrs. Josephine Hinkle (Adviser).

REDSKINS created a star formation in the middle of the pool. The girls were Darla Fellman, Carol Miller, Patricia Guinther, Sandra Norris, Donna Ohl, Carol Keim, Dorsey Johnson, Sandra Fellman, Joyce Keim, and Linda Niess.

RACERS PLUNGED into water for relay. Already started were LaVerne Arndt, and Kyle White. Neil Keefer, Lawrence Kratzer, and Walter Kohler eagerly awaited their turn. Mr. Leon Tuttle supervised the boys' activities.

SAILOR GIRLS, dressed in red, white, and blue, did a snappy routine to "Anchors Away." The participants were Sharon Yaeck, Charlotte Baker, Zona Gail Cope, Susan Stortz, Judith Reed, Linda Fehnel, and Penny Grantz.

Aquacade Featured by Dolphin Club

On March 21 and 22, the Dolphin Club presented "Aqua-Americana," the first aquacade held in the school's natatorium. The girls portrayed Indians, seals, dolls, sailors, and teddy bears in character routines while the boys' activities included races, diving, and water polo. The candle light finale put a finishing touch to the girls' portrayal of America's way of life.

The spectacular dives and synchronized swimming techniques displayed in the aquacade were perfected during after school practices under the supervision of Mrs. Patrice Prettyman. Members of the Dolphin Club received a charm for their participation in the water show.

DOLLS are what every little girl and every big boy want. The girls, Patricia Guinther, Connie Moore, and Darla Fellman, wore pink swimming suits and carried petite parasols.

CURTAIN CALL, Seated: Nancy Shollenberger, Nancy Sorrentino, Jane Paules, Frances Schleifer, Barbara Frankenfield, JoAnn Jordan, Judy Reed, Charlotte Baker, Zona Gail Cope, Susan Stortz, Sharon Yaeck, Penny Grantz, Linda Fehnel, Donna Ohl, Joyce Keim, Patricia Guinther, Carol Miller, Darla Fellman, Sandra Norris, Sandra Fellman, Harriet Kratzer, Janet Schoch, Carol Keim, Linda Neiss, Kathryn Kistler, Joan Feely, Connie Moore, Mary Dene Davis, Carol Decker, Barbara Cole, Ingrid Klerx. Girls Enjoy Water, Fun, and Frolic

The Girls' Recreational Swimming Club was comprised of girls who possessed sufficient swimming ability to pass the intermediate swimming test. Perfecting their swimming and diving were important aims, but the main function was to have fun and enjoy swimming.

First row: Judith Houser, Ardith Clark, Caroline Rahe,

Mermaids Strive for Perfection

Dolphin Club members were selected for their ability to perform various water skills. After school practices improved their ballet legs, dolphins, diving techniques, and other intricate routines which were used in the Aquacade.

First row: Seaman, Skinkle, Shollenberger, Persian, Wieand,

Queries on Sports Rules Discussed

Members of the Sports Officiating Club were taught the rules and finer points of football, basketball, and baseball. Queries concerning decisions and penalties occurring during games were discussed. The aims of the club were to encourage members to officiate at intramural games, to understand the trials and tribulations of officials, and to exemplify good sportsmanship at all athletic contests.

Contests Acknowledge Best Sportsmen

Meetings of the Hunting and Fishing Club included discussions pertaining to big and small game hunting, trapping, and fishing, as well as care of rifles and ammunition. Movies were shown and representatives from the Pennsylvania Fish and Game Commissions spoke to the group. Members who shot the largest buck and caught the biggest trout were awarded cash prizes.

First row: Montz, Roy Miller, Lesser, Hechler, Gambler, Mory, Billman, Doney. Second row: Wagner, Morris (Secretary), Neil Miller, Bogert, Ziegler, Schnellman, Schwartz, Kuhns, Moyer. Boys Study Art of Wrestling

An active group appearing for the first time in our school, was formed with one purpose in mind — to promote wrestling in Emmaus High School. Films of meets from other districts helped to arouse the boys' interests in this new sport. On March 8 and 9, members of the Wrestling Club, accompanied by their adviser, were given the opportunity to attend the District 11 Finals at Allentown.

Hours of Toil, Patience, and Fun Produce School Newspaper

Weeks before each publication of the Hi-Jeff, reporters could be found dashing around the school, page editors racking their brains in order to gather news, the adviser was asked questions, and the Editor-in-Chief cracking the whip in hope of getting the paper out on time.

The four-page edition issued twelve times a year was divided into various sections. Aside from its regular coverage of sports, features, alumni news, and editorials, the newspaper added to its content a society column for the purpose of publicizing social events such as trips, slumber parties, and other activities of interest to the student body.

The Hi Jeff staff was responsible for the painstaking task of sketching layouts, writing headlines, and trying to make the articles fit. Zinc etchings and linoleum cuts were made by the staff members. Newspaper copy was typed by the staff typists, linotyped by Moyer Printing Service, and printed in the school shop.

In addition to selling subscriptions at $1.75 each, the staff sold bookcovers designed in the school colors, sponsored bake sales and the first dance of the year, in order to raise extra funds for the publication.

The Editor-in-Chief of the Hi-Jeff was selected by the adviser and the previous Editor-in-Chief on the basis of journalistic accomplishment on the school paper. Two feature editors, a sports editor, news editor, and exchange editor were also selected for journalistic ability. The staff consisted of reporters, typists, photographers, and artists. After completing two years of faithful service on the staff, members are awarded an eight-inch script "E".

Unusual Skills Shown in Gym Exibition

Students, under the supervision of Miss Adele Kocher, Mrs. Patrice Prettyman, Mr. Richard Keim, and Mr. Leon Tuttle, presented the annual Gym Exhibition on April 30. The girl's portion of the program included a club and wand drill, folk and square dancing, and the Highland Fling. The boys' part of the program revolved around marching routines. The tumbling and apparatus activities, combining skills of boys and girls, were performed at the same time in various areas of the gymnasium.

TUMBLING with grace and coordination, the girls performed various formations and intricate stunts on the mats and apparatus.

A HUMAN PYRAMID, one of the attractions in the exhibition, was built by male participants who displayed other stunts on the mats.

THE CLUB AND WAND DRILL, with its precision movements, was performed by the junior girls. They manipulated the clubs and wands to the tune of "The Blue Danube Waltz."

THE HIGHLAND FLING was the senior girls' interpretation of a Scottish dance. The lassies costumes were kilts, white blouses, and red knee socks.

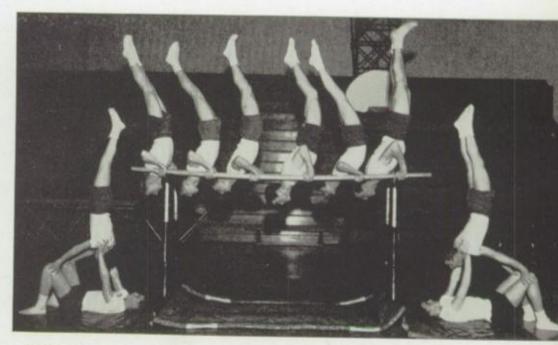

TABLEAU was formed by ten boys. Six demonstrated shoulderstands on the parallel bars, while the end groups formed a hand and shoulder balance.

Gridiron Warriors Thrill Crowds in New Stadium

The 1956 football season with a record of three victories, one tie, and six defeats, was not very successful from a "won and lost" standpoint, but provided many new thrills for the fans. Emmaus played four of its home games under temporary lights in a new stadium, with the permanent lights arriving in time for the final game on October 19. Mid-way in August, Coach William Lobb and assistant Coaches Alfred Neff, Kenneth Moyer, Richard Shaak, and Richard Keim issued the first call for practice. After a few days of scrimmage, the coaches and squad packed their equipment and traveled to Camp Dent in the Poconos for a week of lectures, movies, and scrimmages.

On September 7 the local eleven opened the season with Muhlenberg Township on the home field. With 45 seconds remaining in the contest, the temporary lights failed and the game was awarded to the Muhls who were leading 19-6. The following Friday night the lads lost their second contest to Quakertown, 28-0. Opening the Lehigh Valley League season in their third consecutive home game, the Hornets were defeated by Stroudsburg, 14-6. On September 29 the squad tackled the eventual league champion Northampton on the latter's home field. The Konkrete Kids kept the Moravian Boro lads winless by a score of 40-7. Smarting from four straight setbacks, the Emmaus gridders returned home six days later to defeat Slatington, 13-7. On October 13 they lost their fifth game to a well drilled Catasauqua eleven, 19-0. On the home field for the last time, the Hornets gained their second victory by conquering Lehighton, 27-13. After battling the Palmerton Blue Bombers to a scoreless tie, Coach Lobb's proteges defeated his Alma Mater, Pen Argyl, 6-0. Thanksgiving Day the Hornets battled their traditional rivals and lost the Lion's Club Trophy to the Whitehall Zephyrs by a score of 25-13.

Junior Gridders Win All Home Games

The Junior Varsity squad, under the coaching of Mr. Richard Shaak and Mr. Richard Keim, showed an intense spirit and will to win. Playing their games on Monday afternoons, the Junior Hornets compiled a record of three victories and four defeats. The new stadium brought success to the Junior Hornets since all three victories were won at home, while all four away games were lost.

The Junior gridders opened their season with Quakertown and were unable to score as the Quakers rolled up 27 points. Before gaining a taste of victory the lads were defeated two more times by Muhlenberg Township, 40-6, and Slatington, 20-13. On October 15, they collected their first victory by defeating the Catasauqua Junior Rough Riders, 25-14. The following Monday the squad traveled to Lehighton, but the traveling jinx held as they were again defeated, 7-0. With a record of one victory and four defeats the lads returned home for the final two games. They gained impressive victories over Palmerton, 20-7, and Whitehall, 30-6, to close the season.

CHEERING SQUAD leading fans in "The Show Your Pep" cheer at the Whitehall-Emmaus Turkey Day game. Clad in attractive green and gold uniforms, they were admired by all spectators.

MIXED EMOTIONS were expressed by spectators at all athletic events. The new stadium, whether at night, in rain, sunshine, or snow, was always filled with cheering and high spirited fans.

Energetic Cheerleaders Led Enthusiastic Crowds

"Green and Gold Fight!" With those words another rousing cheer was completed by the inspiring cheerleaders. While executing their cheers perfectly, they promoted good sportsmanship and maintained a fine reputation for Emmaus among the Lehigh Valley Schools.

THE CHEERING SQUAD consisted of three seniors and four juniors. They were Jane Diefenderfer (senior), Harriet Laudenslager (senior), Zona Gail Cope (junior), Mary Ann Never faltering, they started [their practice sessions in the spring and practiced long and hard to achieve co-ordination and rhythm. Under the direction of Miss Adele Kocher, they boosted the football and basketball teams and played a major role at all football pep rallies.

Hornettes Tie for Mythical Title

PROUDLY HOLDING TROPHIES which were earned for outstanding feats in basketball are Marsha Zurowski, most valuable player; Jane Diefenderfer, most cooperative player and Players' Player award; and Sandra Yaeck, most improved player.

Maintaining previous records set by the Emmaus High School girls' basketball teams, the Hornettes successfully completed the year with eleven victories and one defeat — tying the Catasauqua girls for the unofficial league championship. Under the first-year coaching of Miss Adele Kocher, the Lassies drilled long and hard, starting practice sessions in November. Stressing the theory that good girls' teams are fast, dribbling was seldom used and a fast team resulted. With seven letter winners returning, the first team was easily chosen with much competition from underclassmen throughout the season.

Opening the season on November 30, they defeated Southern Lehigh, 53-38, and followed through by defeating Parkland, 74-44, and Central Catholic, 55-39. A big surprise was launched on December 22, when the alumni girls were unable to put a team on the floor, and the Boys Junior Varsity made their debut against the Hornettes and tied them, 64-64. On January 4, the girls suffered their only defeat from a sharpshooting Catasauqua team, 62-54. During the remainder of the first half, they easily defeated Whitehall, 51-41, Slatington, 61-39, and Palmerton, 69-34. In the Palmerton game, Marsha Zurowski set a new record by scoring 49 points. The previous record, set by Becky Sachs, was 42 points. The Lassies handed the Catty Rough Riderettes, on February 1, their first defeat in two years by a score of 65-56. They successfully completed the second half by defeating Whitehall, 67-34, Slatington, 63-50, and Palmerton, 67-52.

The fast and clever guards having an almost unbeatable defense, held their opponents to 489 points, while our swift and accurate forwards scored 648 points.

SENIORS IN ACTION are Sandra Yaeck tapping the ball from Jane Diefenderfer to guard Mary Ann Deischer. Sue Anderson refereeing the practice game called a "Jump Ball."

REBOUNDING the ball for Emmaus is Sandra Yaeck while Jane Rodgers (27) is on the alert for a pass. The Hornettes handed the Catasauqua Rough Riderettes their first defeat in two years, 65-56.

MARSHA ZUROWSKI tries for another 2 points as Charlotte Baker and Jane Diefenderfer look on. Marsha set a new record of 49 points as the Hornettes easily defeated Palmerton 69-34.

Varsity Cagemen Have Second Best Season in School History

Win Seventeen, Lose Nine

Playing the first full schedule in the new gymnasium, the Emmaus Green Hornet Basketeers established a record of seventeen victories and nine defeats. While compiling the impressive record, the Hornets won eight of eleven preleague games, including two victories in the Upper Perkiomen Tournament, which Emmaus won for the third time in as many tries.

They opened the season with four consecutive victories over Southern Lehigh, Muhlenberg Township, Bangor, and a one-point victory over Nazareth in a very close game. On December 11, Bethlehem invaded Emmaus and gave the local lads their first taste of defeat. After conquering Pen Argyl, the Moravian Boro Five were handed consecutive defeats by Central Catholic and Boyertown. On December 21 they defeated the graduates in the annual Alumni game. The final two victories of the pre-league season came during the Upper Perkiomen Christmas Tournament over West Lawn and Upper Perkiomen.

Opening the Lehigh Valley League season the Green and Gold quintet defeated the highly regarded Catasauqua Rough Riders on the latter's home court. After three consecutive victories over Lehighton, Northampton, and Stroudsburg they lost their first league game to the Whitehall Zephyrs by a slim margin of two points, 59-57. A victory over Slatington gave the Hornets a chance to tie Palmerton for the Championship in the first half of league play. Playing before the largest crowd in Emmaus history, the local quintet lost to the Blue Bombers and closed first half league play by tying Northampton for second place.

In the second half of league competition the cagemen rolled over Catasauqua, Lehighton, Slatington, and Stroudsburg, but were unsuccessful in three other encounters. Losses to Northampton, Whitehall, and the eventual Lehigh Valley League Champions, Palmerton, placed Emmaus in a third place tie with Northampton.

"SAFE" seems to be the most appropriate call as Kerry Lavendoski (47) slides on floor in an attempt to prevent a shot by Wilson (25) of Bethlehem. Giving a helping hand is Kerezman (42).

FIVE TO ONE appears to be the line-up as the photographer caught this action shot in the Palmerton game. The Emmaus players are Kerry Lavendoski (47), Larry Hillegass (54), Robert Flower (56), Gerald Strauss (46), and Barry Urland (45).

Junior Basketeers Have Impressive Season

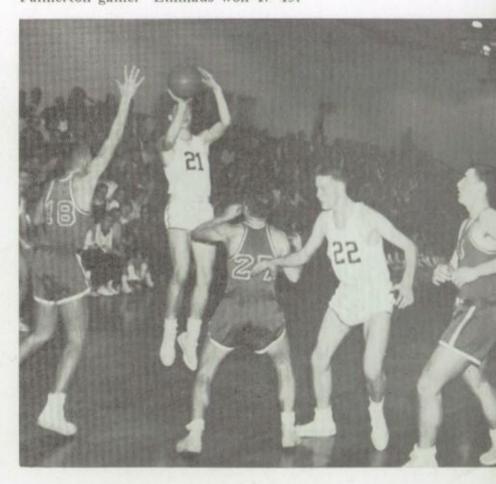

The Junior Varsity Cagemen established an excellent record by winning 19 out of 23 games. Developing co-ordination, teamwork, and good ball handling, Coach Richard Shaak aimed to turn these freshmen and sophomores into future varsity men. In preleague competition the lads rolled over eight straight opponents. In league competition they were victorious over every team at least once and completed a league record of 11 victories and three defeats. The only team the Junior Basketeers were unable to conquer was the Junior Varsity of Allentown High School in a post-season game.

JUMP SHOT is attempted by Neil Shaffer (21) as Richard Kressler (22) moves into position for a rebound during the Palmerton game. Emmaus won 47-45.

Matmen Inaugurate New Sport at E. H. S.

With interest, determination, and thirty boys, Mr. William Krebs, introduced wrestling. New equipment, mats, and uniforms were purchased, and the garage was adopted as practice quarters. Two experienced wrestlers, Trent Holman, in the 112pound class, and Thomas Fey, in the 120-pound class, both transfers from other schools, were among the boys. The first meet was held in our gymnasium on January 7 with Southern Lehigh High School. The Hornets were defeated by a 26-31 score, but the team's spirit were lifted and six more boys joined the group. Four successive victories were established in matches with Palisades, 36-14, Wilson Boro, 34 - 23, and re-matches with Southern Lehigh, 36 - 22, and Wilson Boro, 36-13. In the final match with Allentown High School Junior Varsity, the Hornet matmen lost their second meet by a score of 32 - 8. The wrestling schedule was climaxed with the District XI competition at Allentown on March 8 and 9, where Trent Holman won the 112-pound District Championship.

WRESTLING AWARDS were won by Co-captains Thomas Fey and Trent Holman. Tom received the Players' Player award and Trent, District XI champion, was selected as the most outstanding wrestler.

New Diamond Initiated By Baseball Squad

The Green Hornet Baseball squad, coached by Mr. Leon Tuttle, opened the season on April 10 with nine returning letter winners. The predominately sophomore squad initiated the new diamond with seven home games. Early practice sessions were devoted to perfecting sliding techniques, double plays, base running, and bunting. The schedule included games with Bethlehem Catholic, Boyertown, Allentown, Southern Lehigh, Catasauqua, Slatington, Stroudsburg, Palmerton, Lehighton, and Northampton.

THREE SENIORS discussing pitching grips as Lee Schuster demonstrates his favorite to Wallace Wetherhold and William Lagler.

BROAD JUMPING TECHNIQUES are demonstrated by William Schantzenbach as teammates Charles Johnson, John Pokorny, Terry Miller, and Ronald Brey exhilarate their team spirit.

Track Squad Largest In School's History

Coaches William Lobb and Richard Keim concentrated on teaching the fundamentals of track since only three lettermen returned, namely John Pokorny, John Craumer, and Ronald Brey. In the 1956 season, Ronald Brey placed first in the 440 yard dash at the District 11 Meet in Pottsville, which qualified him for the State Championship Meet at Pennsylvania State University.

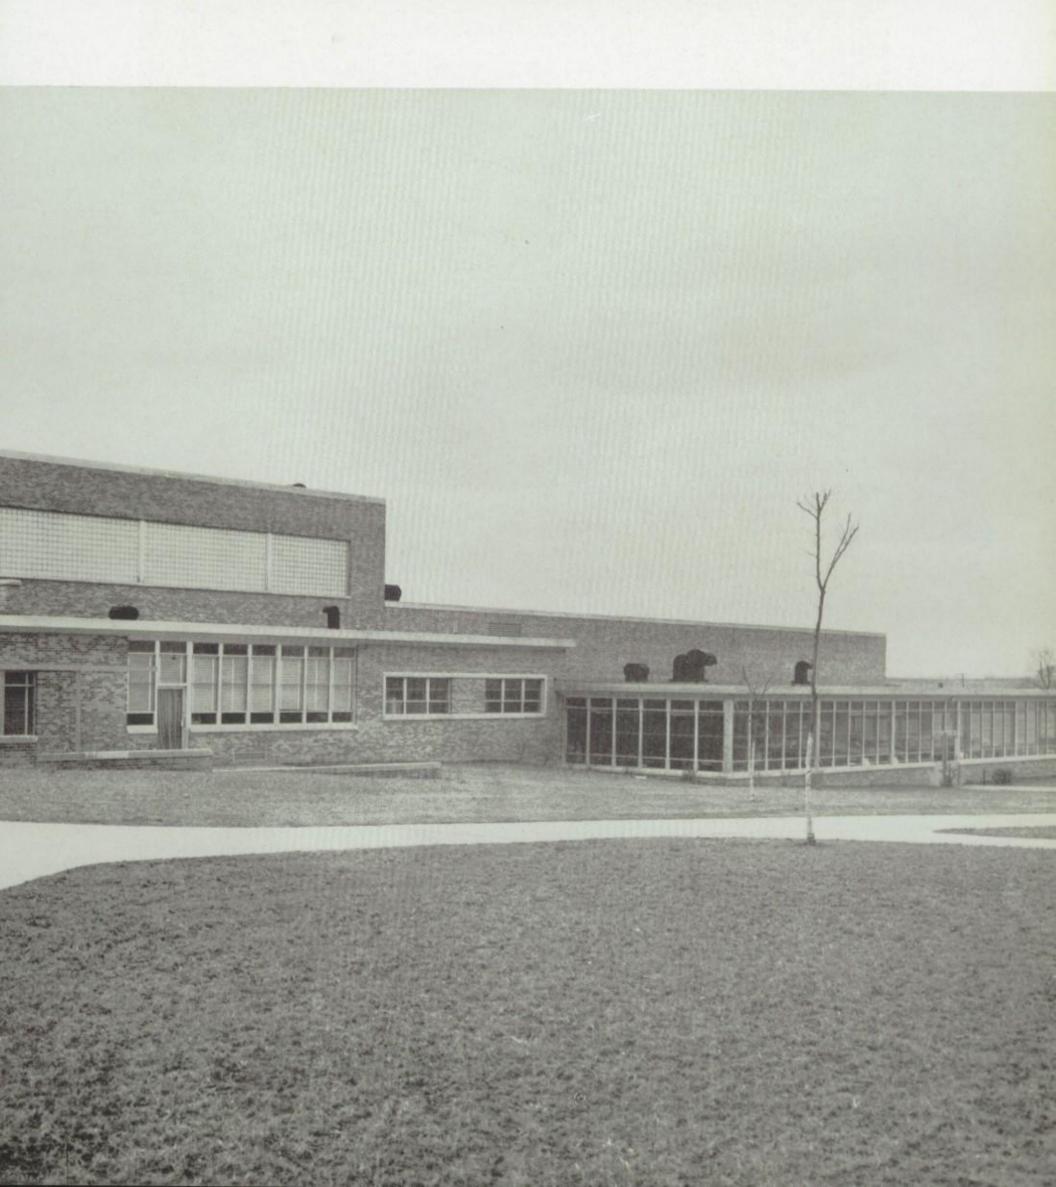

The largest track squad in the school's history opened its season on April 10 at Palmerton. Home meets included Boyertown, Lehighton, Slatington, Hellertown, and Northampton while Bethlehem and Whitehall were away. Highlighting the season was the L.V.I.A.A. Meet held in the E.H.S. stadium on Saturday, May 11.

Acknowledgment

In appreciation for the financial aid given the yearbook staff by the business establishments of Emmaus and surrounding communities, the 1957 Tattler Staff extends its heartfelt gratitude for the important role they played in making this, the thirty-fifth edition of the Tattler, possible.

Our sincere appreciation and thanks to Miss Mildred Strauss and the senior secretarial and commercial students for their help and patience in the typing of yearbook copy; to Mrs. Mary Yeager, Mr. Woodrow Schaadt, Mr. Albert Benfield, and the senior English classes for their help in composing the biographies; and to all others who have cooperated in making this, we hope, another award winning edition of the Tattler.
